He says he is satisfied of the certainty of Garfield's election in November. He thinks the fight is a close one in Indiana, with the chances all in favor of the Republicans, and that there is no shadow of doubt of carrying Ohio in October and November. The Sectary will not leave the capital again before the election, and is at his desk again at work as composedly as ever.

Hon. Daniel L. Russell denies the report that he is going to support Hancock. It is not known, the Judge says, where the lie was started.

The North State gives the following startling state item concerning General James M. Leach:

The Beacon publishes a letter from Gen. Leach in which he gives it as his with 2 tied. opinion that "Hancock canno carry North Carolina or the Presidency." Gen. Leach is conceded to be a very sensitive weathercock, indicating the current of popular feeling, and the opinion which he here expresses is undoubtedly correct. He finds it hard work to get up any enthusiasm for Hancock-all the harder because he feels and knows that Hancock cannot

The Newbernian has some curious speculations concerning the 14, 2nd and 3d Congressional Districts. Among other things it puts down the Second District majority at 2,806, while it is in fact nearer 10,000. And puts down Russell's majority at 881, when it was 1,100 odd. It says that there is danger that Canada will carry Shackelford's own county, Onslow, and also Carteret, and that "we are forced to the conclusion thrt Col. Shackelford's election is extremely doubtful."

THE MAINE BLECTION.

THURSDAY Sept. 16th. The election in Maine is a surprise to both parties except the machinators who put the $100,000 into the state and deliberately bought up the vote. Asit is, however, both parties are camping on the field, and awaiting the result. We shall write up the news each day until the Post goes to press.

The following dispatch was received by Col, McPherson, Secretary of the Congressional Committee at Washington from Senator Blaine, as follows:

AUGUSTA, ME., Sept. 14. 1880. Hon, Ed. McPherson:

Legislature about two-thirds Republican to both branches. Three Republican Congressmen elected and governor vote so close that the official returns will be required to decide it. JAMES G. BLAINE

The Senator also, on the same date sent a telegram to Gen. Garfield which we copy in full. It contains as will be seen, startling statements:

SENATOR BLAINE'S DISPATCH TO GEN. GARFIELD.

AUGUSTA, ME., Sept 14.-Senator Blaine has sent the tollowing to General Garfield:

AUGUSTA, September 14, 1880. To Gen. Jas. A. Garffeld, Mentor, Ohio: The net result of yesterday's election as nearly as can be stated at this hour (S p. m. Tuesday) ; ls about as follows The Republicans have carried the first second and third congressional districts. while the fusionists have carried the tourth and fifth. The Republicans have carried both branches of the legislature by a strong majority, reaching, perhaps, two-thirds of each house. On the popular vote for governor, Davis and Plaisted have such over 72. 000 votes, with the probabilities in favor of Plaisted coming out a few have had equal experience, the Maine favor of Plaisted coming out a few hundred, perhaps 1,000 ahead. The same towns last year gave Davis 64,314, Smith 44,269, Garcelon 19,183, scattering 260; Republican majority 602. The towns to hear from gave, last year, Davis 4,799, Fusion 6,362, scattering 83. The courage of the Maine Republicans was never higher than at this moment. We have elected 22 members of the Senate against 9 by the Fusionists, and have the House of Representatives by a large majority. Average Loss per Thousand Under Democratic rule $5 17-Under Wepublican rule only 64 Cents. BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 .- The revised statement of losses under the several Administrations, from George Washington to the present, has been completed and is ready for issue to-67,938, Plaisted 66,493, scattering 323; day. It differs from that previously prepared, in that it embraces Grant's full term and two years of Hayes's.

The most striking feature is the unique record of the present Administration from its beginning to June 30, 1879. In the receipts from all sources, including those from customs, internal revenue, direct tax, public lands, miscellaneous dividends, interest premiums, and receipts from loans and Treasury, notes, the rresent Administration did not lose a single cent. In Senate-Republicans 21, Fusion 10, the disbursements, the total loss was $2.676 81, of which that involved in Post Office accounts, which collects The National Republican significantly and disburses its own revenues, was $1,290 90. Not a cent was lost in war navy, pensions, and Indian disbursements; and in all other miscellaneous disbursements, including those on account of the public debt, interest premiums, and all civil expenses exclusive power with hard hands, and the result of the Post Office. the loss amounted to $1,383 91. The rate of loss therefore is 8 mills to the thousand dollars.

As an example of the comparative business methods of Democratic and shown that the ratio of loss prior to June 30, 1861, was $3 50 in each $1,-000; from July 1, 1861, to June 30,

The record of disbursements is even more favorable to Republican business methods. Prior to the first inaugurawhich states that Davis' majority will tion of Mr. Lincoln, the loss was $5been 46 cents in each $1,000.

Political.

Concerning Gen. Hancock. Major Gould, a Paymaster in the Army, was in Hancock's headquarters when the news from Vermont arrived, and watched closely the effect of Gen. Hancock, who gravely said:

"This is not as I wanted it. The campaign was managed badly on our part. If I had had my way I should have put our ablest speakers in Vermont-not that I expected that we should carry it at all, but in order to keep the Republican majority down in the remainder of the north. This is a bad showing for us in the beginning.
It demonstrates that the Republicans are holding their own in the north, and that I shall make no gains from the soldiers. Their party is solid in the north." Gen. Hancock, the Major says, looks gloomy and depressed.

Colonel Codman, from the Comwittee on resolutions, reported a preamble in favor of brotherhood with the South, with compromises and concessions, but not to the sacrifice of principle; denouncing the violation of suffrage in the South; and opposing the the giving over the control of the nation to the Democrats. The resolutions congratulated the state upon the prosperity of the country; denounced they had recently exercised power; obdenounced the Democratic attempt to usurp the government of Maine and to "starve our the government," by refusing appropriations. Gen. Hawley of Connecticut ther addressed the Convention, his subject being the twenty years record of the

The best evidence that the leading Democrats like Thurman and Jere Black did not take any stock in the doctrine that Tilden was elected, and that Hayes was fraudulently counted in, is the fact that the Cincinnati Convention laid him on the shelf. O'Connor, the bogus member from the Charleston District could not find words bitter enough to express his scorn of the "carpet-baggers" and swore that he would be elected over Mackey "at all hazards." The redshirts were present, and a half dozen colored men swore they would vote for Hancock if they died for it.

We said the other day when speaking of the seceders to Hancock, like Butler and Forney, of Pennsylvania, that so far as our information extended not a single one of the prominent bolters who had the power to defeat or influence a single member of Congress or an elector. Directly after, it was noticed that the Hon, J. J. Martin, the sitting member in the 1st, Congressional District was defeated and the Hon. Cyrus W. Grandy was nominated. Since that time the question naturally presents itself upon our mind to what extent we ought to modify the statement which we made

It is reported that a letter from Gen. Hancock is in existence, written to an intimate Democratic friend, proposing as a piece of strategy to make a terrible onset on Ohio in order to withdraw Republican forces from Indiana. Gen. Garfield is probably as good a military cock's strategy by eight southern states. The pertinency of the suggestion will appear when it is known that Hancock intended to induce his friends to "buy up" Ohio.

The Star of the 10th says that Philadelphia polls a vote for every four inhabitants. And then says if the south purpose. was guilty of such fraud and ballotbox stuffing "their organs would split the welkin." He forgets that at one precinct in South Carolina, where only 620 votes were registered, Hampton had counted for him 1,470 majority. Now let the "welkin split." That is about one vote for every 24 inhabitants. But we suppose the Star was not talking about that.

AN IMPORTANT ELECTION.

Attention is called to a bill introduced into the last regular session of the General Assembly by John C. Blocker, Esq., the member of the House of Representatives from Cumberland. This was entitled, "A Bill to Amend the Constitution of the State of North Carolina," and the import of the said bill was to reduce the number of the present Senate from 50 to 30 members. It was introduced into the House on the 22d of January 1879, and on March 8th, following, was reported favorably by a majority of the Judiciary Committee, to which it had been referred. in the following language, viz: "The Judiciary Committee have considered this bill and a majority of the Committee recommend that it do pass. Cook; for the majority." It will be noticed that the bill laid in the hands of the committee from January 22d, 1879, to march 8th, 1879, before it was reported, when it was reported; when it was approved by the commit tee, but tabled for want of time to pas it, and without any objections to the bill in the House. The bill appears in tull in another column of the Post. It is evident that our Senate of 50 members and our House of 120 members are disproportionate in numbers. While the House is as large as the interests of the state requires, the Senate is too large in proportion to it. This the tax payers of the state of about Assembly, besides equalizing more just-

GEORGIA MATTERS. The open hostility between Gov. Colcorruptionists, and Norwood, who is the independent candidate for Governor, the United States. backed by Bob Toombs, Ben. Hill and other independents, seems to be irreconcilable. As an instance of the violence to which things have arrived, we copy from a Macon newspaper where Gov. Colquitt was to speak, showing how kindly he was received: Thereupon occurred one of the mos remarkable scenes ever witnessed, probably, in the state. For two hours the man stood before the people, speaking amid a storm of cheers, hisses, groans, cries, cat-calls, jeers, and insults. quence was powerless before it, and the resence of the most substantial and dignified citizens of Macon had little effect. A dozen times the speaker was forced to stop entirely, and several times Colonel Whittle, Captain A. O. Bacon, and others sought to calm the people in vain.

That the wrangle has assumed a very vituperative character, and carries with it an intensity of invective hardly paralleled anywhere, cannot be doubted. Colquitt affects very Christian-like ways, and is earnest in his aspirations for a high standing among whatever there is of virtue and uprightness in Georgia. Ex-Senator Norwood, his opponent is no less respectable and esteemed for his high character, although he does not put on so many of the airs and manners of saintliness as Colquitt. And yet each of these parties are assailed by some of the prominent men of Georgia as if they were cut-throats to any American citizen. Senator and thieves. So there is a stiff fight going on there even more violent than exists in Virginia. But they have not yet called in Wade Hampton and

Vance as messengers of peace. In the meantime our Republican friends have held a state convention and after several days of altercation adjourned without making any nomination for Governor or other state officers, the convention seeming to be ineradicably divided in opinion, Whatever our opinion may be upon the habit in some of these southern states of turning parties into mere wreckers, with a view of subsisting on the disasters of other factions, we may express which "meets my mot hearty conthe opinion that our Georgia Republi- tempt?" cans have made a mistake in not keeping up some sort of a state ticket. If we understand the article in the Atlanta Republican entitled, "The Lost Advantage" it means to express the opinion that the course for the Republicans to take at their late convention was to support not "either of the Democratic candidates -- but supporting, so to speak, the breach now existing in the Democratic party; and that we should stand by, see the fight, side with the strongest, for a consideration-and with the victor reap the spoils! We desired to put in operation the Jesuitical declaration, that the end justified the means." It goes on to say that there would have been no inconsistency in the Republicans supporting either ticket to promote the breach, so that the Republicens could get a fair vote and an honest count. This seems to be "The Lost Advantage," which the Republicans failed to take. In another article the Republican advises the Republicans to look out and get as many members of the legislature as possible, so as to hold the balance of power in that body. In another still smaller squib, it advise that "fitty of Atlanta's best men should now get together and put out the strongest man they can as a candidate for Governor." There is still another article in the same paper, seemingly giving assent to Mr. Akerman's Augusta speech, in which he warned the colored Roman not to jump "out of the Norwood frying pan" lest "they did not jump into the Colquits fice." We have not seen a full report of Mr. Aker man's speech but we have always understood that he was in favor of concentrating the Republican vote upon some strong Republican. The Georgia Republicans have been indulging in this sort of light drama ever since reconstruction commenced, marching under the inevitable tri-colored banner, not of the French lities, but of the

"There has been a contemptible neanness by that party and its leaders towards the negroes that meets my most hearty contempt. They knew that they were ignorant. They knew that they were weak and not able to protect' themselves, and what have they done? They have professed to be their warm friends and admirers. They have told them that they were fit to occupy any station in the Government. They told them they were the equal of white men in every respect. What has it all come to, when the opportunity is given them to give substantial proof of their love and admiration? I challenge any man of any color or party to name single colored man who holds an office under the United States government by the vote of the National Republican party.

Does not anybody know that the colored people are indebted to the Republicans for every benefit which they have [received since 1681? Bayard knows that neither he, nor his father who sat in the Senate before him, and whose successor he was, eyer voted for a single one of the measures for the benefit of the colored race. The Republicans gave them their freedom, gave them afterwards their right to the trial by jury, then their right to testify as witnesses in courts and to sit on the jury, and finally the right to vote, and, so far as statut is could do it, every conceivable right which belongs Bayard himself, or any of the highest men in character in the country, has not a vestige, not an iota, not a speck, not the minutest particle more of right as a full, complete and absolute citizen than the most ignorant descendant of one of the Africans who were held as slaves without any rights, who made them what they are? who opened the door to them to equal rights? who freed them and at last made the full citizens? The Republican party. They not only did it by and of themselves, but in spite of the uniform opposition of Mr. Bayard and men like bim. Where then is the "contemptible meanness"

THE SOUTHERN PLAN TO PRE. VENT FRAUDS. The following letter is published in the New York Nation. To the Editor of the Nation. The most certain and effectual o bring this about is to elect Hancock. The southern whites fear Republican them to negro rule to perpetuate their change of administration, and there could not fail to be a disintegration of parties as they now stand. The whites divide, and then negroes would also divide, and the elections would be more fairly conducted. It was a great mistake to confer the franchise upon the negroes indiscriminately. The mass of them are wholly unfit for such a trust. The presence of such a mass of hopeless gnorance as a factor must necessarily degrade our politics, especially as they can never blend with the whites as one people. As long, however, as the color ine is forced upon us as the leading political issue, the whites must be expected in some way to be masters of the situation, and any strategy needed to effect this will be considered as justifiable, as similar strategy between beligerents in time of war. Eastover, S. C., August 24, 1880. Here below is a practical application of the Democratic plan of equal rights at the polls, a fair vote and an honest count as expounded by Hancock: The Charleston (S. C.) News, has an account of what it calls "an amusing affair" at Abbeville Court House, that State, the story thus reading: Republican County Convention met here vesterday at 11 o'clock. The Star, our amiable morning co temporary, is doing its best to fulfil Alex. Stephen's prophecy, that the way to elect Garfield was to attack his personal character, or, as he expressed it, "throw mud at him." This is is the reason why our morning contemporary has taken such a dislike to Garfield. A Democratic member of Congress from the XIXth District of Pennsylvania, named F. E. Beltzhoover having received a request from a pension agent sking aid in securing a pension for an aged lady, wrote the following letter to him in reply:

I would most cheerfully introduce and urge the passage of a bill, such as you suggest, but with the present Democratic House pension bills do not have much favor. THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM. ADOPTED AT RALEIGH JULY

Ex-Officio - Joseph C. Abbott.

The Hon. R. C. Badger, chairman of the Committee on Platform and Resolations, reported from that committee the following: The Republicans of North Carolina. in Convention assembled, renew the pledges made in all their former platorms. And they declare as follows:

1. That they cordially approve the nominations, recently made at Chicago, of James A. Garfield for President, and Chester A. Arthur for Vice-President; and that they will most cheerfully and actively devote themselves to their election, as indispensable to the preservation of the Republican party, and of the Republic, in its integrity. And that they fully endorse the principles set forth in the platform, adopted by the Republican convention, which convened in the city of Chicago, on the 2nd day of June 1880. 2. That they have seen, with great apprehension and alarm, the rapid condidation and engrossment of our railroad systems, by and under the control and ownership of foreign monopoliststhat such consolidation of capital gives now to the monopolists to oppress the labor of the country by unreasonable and unjust local tariffs and fares, and gives to the a the power to control the legislative branch of government, in the passige of laws in their interest, and minous to those of the people; and that they have seen with regret, that these monopolists are making an insidious invasion among the leaders of the Demeratic party, which culminated on the 17th day of June, in the engulfing and that such consolidation of capital gives 17th day of June, in the engulfing and swallowing up of the whole Democratic State convention; and that while they have no desire or intention to make an ajust war upon these monopolies, they do demand that the Legislature shall pass laws to govern and control them, that they shall not be permitted to discriminate against our own people and place a reasonable limit on local tariffs and fares. 3. That they view with anxiety the condition of the Western North Carolina Railroad, which, through the hot aste and ill considered contracts of the Democratic state administration, is surrounded by legal troubles which afford no relief from taxation, and threaten to delay for a long time, if not altogether defeat, the completion of that work so necessary for the welfare and development of the state, and especially the western counties.

4. That the Republican party has always been the friend of education, and now again renews its pledge to the people of North Carolina to continue its efforts with increased vigor, until there shall be a complete and perfect system of public instruction That they recognize the mechanic and laborer as the bone and sivew of the land, and pledge themselves to protect their rights and promote their political, educational, and material inter-

6. That the recent constitutional amendments were passed by a convention which was not composed of a majority of elected delegates, and the control of which was stolen from the Republican majority, by an infamous and admitted fraud on the voters of Robeson county. This corruption, on the part of the Democracy, demonstrates the tact that their party will scruple at no violation of law in the interest of party supremacy; and that the Democratic sarty is not the friend of representative government or of the people. 7. That the present system of county government in North Carolina is ufterly abversive of the rights of the citizens; is the grossest political robbery ever ry; is the most damnable fraud ever devised or sanctioned by any political party, and calls for the unqualified confemuation of all who have the name of freemen, without regard to party affiliation: We claim the right of the people to elect every officer in the state, from the Chief Executive down to the humblest official, and demand that this right shall not be denied nor abridged; that an honest count shall follow a free ballot, and the majority shall determine

They denounce the Democratic party as an oligarchy, controlled by ailroad corporations and aristocratic influences, and if not arrested in its course, it will overthrow the most cherished rights of the people The tenrous powers, for private and corrupt ends, in the hands of a few, has recently manifested itself in a vittal part of our State government, and in a way to excite the greatest apprehension. The Superintendent of Public Instruction, now endorsed by his party nomination, and without regard to the pop-ular wish, has demanded to have vested in his hand, that is in the hands of a central board of which he should be the life, the absolute right of dictating what text books our children shall use, whereby he can mould the opinions of the rising generation; can strangle, for the benefit of personal or sectional favorites, all competition in local literature, and open up for his office, so intimately connected with the popular lite and purity, a faithful and profitable source of corrupt jobbery. That they denounce the laws known as the landlord and tenant acts, as devised for the benefit of a few, 13 opcitizen. That they denounce the pre-sent road laws of the state, as oppressive to the laborer, and demand their amendment, so that burdens of build-ing and repairing them shall be borne more equally by all classes of the peo-
